1. There is a unit of Soviet engineers stationed in Wroclaw (Breslau) in the Pilczyce district on the Oder River. A Polish engineer unit is in the Osobowice district, also on the Oder. The majority of Polish troops in the town are centered in the Krzyki district, which also contains the regional military command (LW), 1.
2. The town contains three airfields: a civilian one as well as Polish and Russian military fields.²
3. The town contained the Wroclaw Military Law School. Graduates were required to have a graduation certificate. They graduated as second lieutenants and were assigned as political officers in military units.
4. The UB office is at Ulica Podwale Swidnickie. The KBN has its headquarters in the Krzyki district; an unspecified detachment is stationed at Ulica Podwale Swidnickie.
5. The provincial PZPR office is in a new building at Ulica Cybulskiego.

1. [REDACTED] Comment: Wroclaw is the headquarters of the 4th Military District.
2. [REDACTED] Comment: The Gandau Airfield is the civilian airfield; the only military airfield listed in Wroclaw is the Starachowice (Schongarten) Airfield which is an auxiliary field for the Polish Air Force.
